

I am very concerned about the idea that if any legal protection is given to "media" corporations that it will be inevitably abused. Please don't help serve the interest of a vocal few at the expense of a mostly silent majority.